

What else can I do?

- When discussing suicide in the media, always refer journalists to the Mindframe guidelines at www.mindframe-media.info/for-media
- When speaking publicly or doing a media interview, ask that a 24-hour crisis support service is added to ensure anyone potentially distressed can seek immediate help.

Further information can be obtained from the project team at the Hunter Institute of Mental Health on (02) 4924 6900 or mindframe@hnehealth.nsw.gov.au or from www.mindframe-media.info/for-media
